DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-17 is drawn to the invention of a lightweight thermal heat transfer apparatus, classified in class 165, subclass 133.
- II. Claims 18-24 is drawn to the invention of a process of manufacturing a thermal transfer apparatus, classified in class 428, subclass 113.
- III. Claims 25-31 is drawn to the invention of a process of manufacturing a thermal transfer apparatus, classified in class 428, subclass 105.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product not having laminate composite section and the fibers not being oriented at a configuration similar to the core section.

Inventions I and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the apparatus as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as laminating the fibers on each edge of the diamond shaped core.

Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions II and III are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different of operation. The invention II and III are two different processes of making a heat transfer apparatus, the steps can not be used together and operated in the same mode.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Mr. Ron Billi by a telephone number listed in the application as 301-342-9565 on 1/29/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but an invalid number is informed. Therefore, the call did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
